RE: Termination of representation in the Retired NFL Players Publicity Rights Litigation

Dear Brian,

Lorraine and I would like to thank you for your assistance for all your efforts in the above referenced matter. However, effective 10/7/2015, we will no longer need representation from the Zimmerman – Reed Law firm. Please forward all outstanding advances and documentation to support those expenses to our home address at 908 Country Creek Lane, Red Oak, TX 75154, so that we may make arrangements to pay them. Additionally, please forward all of Rickey's records to our home address.

We will contact the financial company directly that advanced monies to Rickey to ensure payment is made to them.

Again we appreciate your time and services.

Best Regards,

Brian you are correct as of October 7th Zimmerman Reed was terminated from representing Rickey.

As far as costs that was incurred by Rickey and I, I had to take off of work to have forms released, copied and mailed to the firm at your request. There were also charges incurred in having the records copied.

In the contract it states that upon termination Rickey and I are responsible for costs advanced by the firm. Please submit all advance costs incurred by the firm on Rickey's behalf.

Lorraine,

Regarding reimbursement of case expenses, you mentioned on our call that you incurred some FedEx and postage costs in sending medical records to us. As I explained, that is the type of cost that is reimbursable to you as an advanced cost by our firm in representing you and Rickey. I was previously unaware of those. My understanding is that you would not like Zimmerman Reed to represent you any further, so I am uncertain how to advance those costs at this point. Perhaps we could discuss this week? I am traveling today and tomorrow but could talk on Wednesday.

Thanks Brian,

I also appreciate the opportunity in speaking with you. As explained, the October 7, 2015, termination is not personal we simply must do what is best for our family given the grave diagnosis given to my husband and the financial impact it has taken on our family.

I was also pleasantly surprised to hear that the firm intends to reimburse me for my out of pocket costs associated with my legal expertise in gathering information that would normally be incurred by the firm that represents the client. I will begin to itemized those costs to submit to you.

We look forward to receiving Rickey's files and an itemized list on the costs that Zimmerman
Reed believes that we owe pursuant to the terms of the contract.

Best Regards,

Rickey and Lorraine Dixon
